

SKYWAY SKUFFLE RESULTS

SKYWAY, JAN 28, 2018

The college gangs arrived for their annual gathering at Skyway and were treated to a wonderful day and some excellent racing. Despite the meager snowpack the GMNC grooming crew had everything in great shape. Dave Aschwanden buffed it out marking or removing any remaining hazards on race morning. Good job, team!

An energetic bunch of citizen racers joined teams from Colorado Mesa Univ., Univ. of Wyoming, US Air Force Academy, Western State Colorado Univ. and Collorado College for the 10K freestyle race. The college teams raced an individual start 5K time trial on Saturday instead of the scheduled 1K Sprint race because the low snowpack prevented grooming an adequate sprint course. None of them seemed worse for wear for the 10K and put in some great times on a challenging course. Mitch Hollman, skiing for the Air Force, handily won both days by impressive margins. Sydney Wiswell of UWYO won the female side of the time trial but ex-UWYO racer Gwynn Barrows, now a local citizen racer, came on strong for the 10K win. Ella Dewolf of UWYO was the top college 10k-er and Lew Kirkegaard was the fastest citizen male in the 10K.

Energy was again provided by Four Points Bars, Element Rice Cakes and Justins Nut Butters along with homemade soup and oatmeal molasses cookies. Great stuff to keep us going! LOKI Outdoor Wear, Ela Family Farms and Board and Buckle provided some really nice prizes. Thanks as always to our crackerjack race volunteers Danielle Burritt, Bob Major, Rick Peterson and Ernie Langelier! Callie West did great work helping on Saturday.
